

Vessel data sheet

ReefClean is a program that works to remove and prevent marine debris entering the Great Barrier Reef through clean-ups, data collection and source reduction projects. We invite charter operators along the Great Barrier Reef to contribute data on rubbish they remove while out on trips to contribute to the Australian Marine Debris Initiative (AMDII) Database which is used to track marine debris and find solutions that stop it from escaping into the environment at the source.

Contact Details

Vessel Name:	Company:
Contact Name:	Phone Number:
Email address:
Date:	Time of collection:

Location

Latitude:	Longitude:
Location description:

Quantity and Description of Items

e.g. 1 x Plastic Fish Attracting Device (FAD) made of PVC piping attached to approx. 50m synthetic rope	IMG_0001

Forward images and data sheets to info@tangaroablue.org

We acknowledge the tradition owners and custodians of the land and sea country on which we live, learn and work.
We pay our respects to elders past, present and future.